SVCU is looking to fill a Permanent Full-Time
ACCOUNT MANAGER

The Position

Reporting to the Chief Lending Officer, the successful candidate will be responsible for serving the commercial and agricultural lending needs of current and potential members. Primary responsibilities will involve interviewing members, analyzing credit applications, granting and controlling loans, and delinquency control.

You will manage a portfolio primarily composed of commercial & agricultural members from various industries. You are involved in the community and strive to grow the business by strengthening relationships with existing and potential members and determining products and services that will best meet their needs.

The Person

The successful candidate will be highly personable and possess a strong work ethic. You are described as driven, energetic, and goal oriented. Post-secondary education in business or agriculture or experience in a similar role would be looked upon favourably. Additional assets include strong business acumen coupled with solid analytical skills in the areas of financial statement/income tax return analysis and business plans, and excellent verbal and written communication skills. You have a proven history of commitment to education and self-development as training opportunities are available for the ideal candidate.

The Credit Union

Swan Valley Credit Union is a full-service financial services provider with assets of $355 million and locations in Swan River and Benito, serving 6,900 members. The credit union also operates an insurance subsidiary in two locations. Swan Valley Credit Union actively promotes an environment that encourages professional development, teamwork and innovation.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Swan Valley Credit Union also offers a comprehensive benefits package. All advancing candidates are subject to bonding approval.

Interested candidates can submit a resume and cover letter by Friday, December 30, 2022 to:

Blaine Campbell
Chief Lending Officer
Phone: 204.734.6843
Email: blaine.campbell@svcu.mb.ca

Swan Valley Credit Union wishes to thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
