

2023 SVCU Agriculture Strategy & Management Seminar

Presenting: Brad Magnusson (An Independent Agricultural Consultant)

Building Resilient Farms

February 1st, 2023 - Westwood Inn - RSVP by January 27th @ 204-734-7828

9am to 3pm (Health breaks & lunch included)

The conference will examine what we can expect global, national, local agricultural markets to look like in 2023, considering the political and market uncertainty currently facing the MB/SK agricultural sector.

Commodity prices could be volatile due to factors that include warfare in Ukraine, inflation, global economic gyrations, supply chain disruptions, potential trade disputes and damaging weather.

Discussion Highlights

Impact of Russia/Ukraine War on commodity prices - Global Economic Outlook and its Impact on MB/SK Agriculture

Crop profitability projections by crop - How high will interest rates go to slow spending?

Future land values – with higher interest rates? - As well as several other key economic issues.
